USEFUL TIPS

Reach Ravello by car

www.autostrade.it

Coming from North

Leave the motorway A1 (E45) Roma-Napoli, immediately before the Caserta Sud exit, taking the motorway A30 Caserta-Salerno. Exit at Pagani-Nocera gate. Follow the indications to "Costiera Amalfitana" and "Valico di Chiunzi". As an alternative, proceed on A1 (E45) to Napoli, then take the A3 (E45) Napoli-Salerno. Exit at Angri gate following the indications to Costiera Amalfitana and Valico di Chiunzi, driving along the SP2 and SP1 roads. Please bear in mind that this A3 motorway is liable for delays due to traffic jams in the rush hours.

Coming from South

On A3 (E45) Napoli-Reggio Calabria exit at Salerno Centro and drive along the SS163 "Amalfitana" road. Along the travel you will pass through the coastal villages of Vietri sul Mare, Cetara, Maiori, and Minori. This is a very panoramic but winding road where traffic jams are frequent in week-ends and holidays. It is better then to continue on the A3 and exit at Nocera to reach Ravello through Valico di Chiunzi (SP2 and SP1 road).

By train

www.trenitalia.com

Railway stations of Naples or Salerno

Naples railway station is to be chosen only if you mean to continue your travel hiring a car or a taxi (68 km-70'). Actually direct connections by public means from Naples to Amalfi coast and Ravello are quite rare. On the contrary, from Salerno railway station (about 50' by train from Naples) it is possible to take the frequent buses to Amalfi and Ravello - see later on.

By plane

www.gesac.it

Once you arrive at Napoli Capodichino Airport you can reach Ravello by taxi in about 70'. It is also possible to take the ALIBUS service to Naples railway station and then to reach - by train or by bus - Salerno, where SITA buses leave to Amalfi and then to Ravello, but maybe this will take you longer than your flight....

By bus

www.sitasub.it

Amalfi (5 Km far from Ravello) is the terminal of busses (and ferry-boats). From Amalfi there are many connections to other towns of the coast. The local bus service is provided by SITA. It takes about 1 hour from Salerno to Amalfi, 1h 40' from Sorrento to Amalfi, 50' from Positano to Amalfi and 25' from Amalfi to Ravello/

Scala. Transfers after the concerts are assured to Amalfi all the year long, to other destinations only in the summer. It may therefore be advisable to book a taxi in advance for the way back. A list of taxi driver that have an agreement for special fare is available on the Ravello Concert Society web site.

Parking

Near Villa Rufolo, the "Piazza Duomo" parking is available. Automated payment: it is advisable to bring coins. For concerts at the Annunziata Church in Scala parking is allowed along the road near the entrance.

On foot

If you are staying in the nearby, you can reach Ravello walking along the many footpaths which, starting from the coast, climb up to the village on a hill at 365m sl. The way back is without doubts easier. After the concert, you can climb down to Minori in about 30', walking along a well kept and lighted up promenade which starts at the left of Villa Rufolo's gate, in Ravello main square. Atrani and Amalfi are within reach too: a tiny walk starting with a flight of stairs at the crossroads near S. Maria a Gradillo Church, crosses twice the SS373 road at Cigliano, and after Pontone crossroads, to go down along the Dragon Valley to Atrani. Then, walking for a short stretch of the SS163 road, you will reach Amalfi. As an alternative, you can reach Pontone and from there to climb down the stairs to Amalfi, enjoying the view from above. These last itineraries are not lighted up in some spots, it is therefore advisable to bring a torch.

Free shuttle service

Free transfer to the concerts in Annunziata Church in Scala and back to Ravello is available in July and September from 8.45 p.m. to 9.15 p.m. at the taxi stand in Piazza Duomo (main square) in Ravello and after the concert in Scala. Please note that this is a courtesy service offered by Ravello taxi companies and it is depending on car and minivan availability on site.

Handicraft

Ceramic ware, coral jewellery, wrought iron works are the principal products by the local handicraft. In Ravello little potters' workshop it is possible to ask for customized pieces. In the shops you can find pieces of pottery coming from other Italian regions. Fine arts exhibitions are mounted all year long. To contact the promoter write to: mansi.bruno@gmail.com. Ravello has also its own perfume, "Aqua di Ravello", made up with the typical flower and citrus essences of the Coast (www.aquadiravello.it).

Local products

The "sfusato amalfitano" lemon is the most renown among the local products and the "limoncello" liquor is made by infusing the lemon peel in alcohol. A free taste of limoncello during the concert intermission is offered by the liquor maker "I Giardini di Ravello" (www.igiardinidiravello.it). In Autumn, chestnuts are carried to the valley on mule back, to have them roasted or used for making traditional local sweets. In October a chestnut festival is held with games, folk music and dish tasting. Small local dairies make the traditional "caciocavallo" and two soft cheese: fiordilatte and provola. It is also possible to buy directly from the shepherds cheese made of milk from sheep and goats grazing in the mountains. For a wide selection of local products you can ask Mrs Rosa at ravellogustiedelizie@tiscali.it. From the grapes collected in the terraced vineyards three Ravello DOC wines are produced: Red, White and Rosé. It is possible to buy wine directly from the cellars or in one of the specialized shops, which also ship bottles all over the world (wineanddrugs@tiscali.it).

Accommodation and gastronomy

In addition to hotels established since the end of the 19th century - from 5 stars hotels to small family-run guest houses - there are a lot of Bed & Breakfast and rental flats, on the seaside, near Ravello main square, and far among the vineyards and the smelling Mediterranean scrub. All restaurants, even the hotels' ones, offer a great range of menus. We suggest to choose the local cooking, which wisely combine home-grown products with the fish caught in the Amalfi gulf, as well as the local cheese. Almost all restaurants apply a 15% discount for concert ticket holders, on the evening of the concert. The restaurants' opening time changes during the year. Reservation is also advisable. The Tourist Promotion Board (089.8421975) provide you with all useful and up-to-date information.

Trekking, Climbing, Cycling & MTB

www.movicoast.com

Scala is the starting point of several trails, which are part of a network of about 100 itineraries marked by CAI (Italian Mountain Sports Association) in the regional Park of Lattari Mountains. You can go from Vietri to Sorrento along a trekking lasting one or several days (for support and info ask to: info@terredamalfi.it). Some itineraries are also suitable for mountain bikes. A group of bikers is locally active: for further information write to info@movicoast.com. In Scala there are also two climbing sites: Torre dello Ziro and Punta d'Aglio, where 50 different climbings from 1 to 5 pitches are available (www.climbinghouse.it).

Concert locations

In Ravello concerts are performed at Villa Rufolo (entrance from main square) while in Scala at the ancient Annunziata Church, (Campidoglio hamlet) nowadays Lorenzo Ferrigno Auditorium. The distance between the 2 sites is about 3,5 km, 35' on foot and little less than 10' by car. Villa Rufolo was built in 13th century by one of the wealthiest families at the time in Ravello, the Rufolo family, which was at the height of a commercial fortune. Boccaccio mentioned this family in his writings of the second day of the Decamerone. In 1851 the Villa was bought by Sir Nevile Reid, a Scottish botanist. He restored the Villa to its antique splendour, adding rare plants to its gardens facing the sea. It was in this storybook atmosphere that Richard Wagner, who visited Ravello in May 1880, had the inspiration for the scenography of the Parsifal's second act. In the cool spring and autumn evenings concerts are held inside the Villa Rufolo palace. At the end of May and in June the concerts are held in the garden, in the nearby of one of the ancient towers. In case of bad weather condition concerts are held inside the palace. The Annunziata Church in Scala, of Romanic origin, between the 12th and 14th century became part of a Dominican monastery. It was restored in the baroque period. From the Church you can see a beautiful view of the town hanging over the coast and, in the clear weather, of the Salerno Gulf up to Cilento mountains, with Paestum and Palinuro Cape (see picture above).
